The San Luis Obispo International film festival has announced the recipient of the 19th annual King Vidor Award.

Actor John Hawkes will receive the award on Saturday, March 9, at 7 p.m. after the George Sidney Independent Film and Audience Awards at the Fremont Theatre.

Festival Director Wendy Eidson calls Hawkes, "One of Hollywood's most versatile actors."

He recently appeared in "The Session" and "Lincoln."

There will be a conversation with Hawkes and a Q&A with audience members after the presentation.
